ABOUT

HOME FOR THE CULTURE OP ENHEIM

The OP ENHEIM, created by Viola Wojnowski as a private initiative, aims to support contemporary art by developing a network of cooperation with institutions in Wroclaw, Berlin and other European countries.

Our program particularly focuses on the progressive cultural and historical changes of European countries, their dynamics, as well as the identity transformations of their inhabitants.

Since the spring of 2018 - i.e. after the thorough revitalization of the historic building at Solny Square 4 - various cultural events - exhibitions, concerts, meetings with authors, as well as undertakings aimed at creating and developing a network of cooperation with other art and cultural institutions from Wrocław, Berlin, as well as other European countries - have been organized at the OP ENHEIM's headquarters.

AWARDS

AWARDED ACTIVITIES

Cultural heritage is very important to us. Through our activities we try to show how important for the identity is the discovery and preservation of history. Thanks to that we not only enjoy the sympathy of our guests, but we also receive awards and distinctions.

2020

Presence on the shortlist granted for the first time from Special Ilucidare Awards within the Europa Nostra European Prize.

2019

Distinction in the National Competition "Well-kept Monument 2019" from the Minister of Culture and National Heritage and General Conservator of Monuments in the category Adaptation of historic buildings.

2018

Distinction in the XXIX edition of the "Beautiful Wroclaw" competition for the best architectural realization in the category Modernization of an architectural object.

Nomination in the MocArty RMF Classic 2018 competition in the category "Thing with Class 2018".

OP ENHEIM AWARDED BY THE EUROPEAN ILUCIDARE AWARD

This year, the Oppenheim House, which contains our headquarters, was shortlisted for the first-ever ILUCIDARE Special Awards, and was awarded as part of the European Heritage Awards / Europa Nostra 2020 competition programme.

It is an honor for us to be included in the group of awarded projects.

As emphasized by the jury of the ILUCIDARE, the Oppenheim House:

It is a clear example of how mutual understanding and intercultural exchange can be fostered by displaying a multi-layered cultural heritage. At the same time, these values contribute to the preservation of the building and highlight its role. In particular, the strong connection of the conservation work to the history of the site and its original context is commendable.

2020 IN NUMBERS:

EXHIBITIONS

For OP ENHEIM's activities, it was a demanding year, packed with challenges, but also many pleasant moments that we got to spend with you, also in digital reality. Despite the closure of the institution due to the pandemic, we transferred most of our activities online.

For seven months we hosted David Hockney's fairytale etchings and aquatints from his Six Fairy Tales from the Brothers Grimm series juxtaposed with ceramic figures by young artist Asana Fujikawa.

In 2020 we realized 2 exhibitions:

- Asana Fujikawa & David Hockney. Figures of the flowing world (co-organized with Georg Kolbe Museum, Berlin)
- Dominik Lejman, Air Wants to Go.

In addition, as part of the OP_Young program we exhibited 4 presentations of works by the Laureates:

- Oktawiana Jurczykowskiego
- Nikity Krzyżanowskiej
- Liliany Piskorskiej
- Jakuba Jakubowicza

and the artwork of Dorota Morawiec-Winiarska, awarded by the Jury.

PANDEMIC

RESPONSE AND SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY PROGRAMS FOR ARTISTS

Out of a need to support the local art community during the COVID-19 pandemic, responding to the daunting plight of artists, we decided to create outreach art programs:

- OP YOUNG
- DIGITAL RESIDENCY
- Online performative programme

These activities were supported by the Senatsverwaltung für Kultur und Europa as part of the Odra Partnership and the Wrocław

Social Development Centre. Additionally, a survey was conducted to gather the opinions and experiences of our audience regarding the transformation of cultural and artistic activities during the pandemic.

OP ENHEIM ON THE WEB

THE END OF ISOLATION?

PARTICIPATORY RESEARCH IN ART EVENTS

From mid-May to mid-June, we collected the opinions and experiences of our audiences regarding the transformation of cultural and artistic activities during the pandemic period through a short survey.

We decided to conduct a study titled. "The End of Isolation.

Participation in arts events" that allowed us to understand what is expected from cultural institutions after the lockdown period.

MIEJSCE ZAMIESZKANIA

OP_YOUNG

PROGRAMME FOR YOUNG ARTISTS FROM LOWER SILESIA

OP_Young is the latest project implemented at OP ENHEIM. It was created in 2020 out of the need to support the local artistic community in the era of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Responding to the difficult situation of female and male artists, we decided to create a programme which is not only based on financial support but which, through its extensive formula, has a chance to influence the revival of the Wrocław art scene and to include representatives of the young generation in critical and artistic discussions.

OP_Young is also a symbolic opening of our institution to young, progressive artists, whose development we want to actively support.

During the project there were also accompanying events: meetings with artists or guided tours of exhibitions. A mentoring programme was also carried out, during which materials such as a portfolio, statement and press kit were developed. Selected works of art could be purchased during the project, and one of the works presented during the four shows will be purchased for the OP ENHEIM collection.

FIRST EDITION

PROGRAMME FOR YOUNG ARTISTS ARTISTS FROM LOWER SILESIA

FIRST EDITION

The first edition of the OP_Young program started on June 3, 2020 with the announcement of an open call for artistic realizations. We invited artists who are under 35 years of age and are associated with the Lower Silesia area.

As part of the open call for artistic projects, we received 65 applications. We selected those that in our opinion represent the most mature, consistent and original language of expression, and the attitudes presented by their authors indicate a consistently developed, sometimes difficult, but conscious path of development - both in the context of the issues addressed and the choice of medium.

LAUREATES

- Jakubowicz Jakub
- Jurczykowski Oktawian
- Krzyżanowska Nikita
- Piskorska Liliana

In addition, the Jury decided to award a special distinction, which went to: Morawiec-Winiarska Dorota

DIGITAL RESIDENCY

DIGITAL RESIDENCY CARRIED OUT IN COOPERATION
WITH SENATSVERWALTUNG FUR KULTUR UND EUROPA

In response to the pandemic situation, we also created a unique digital artist residency program - Digital Residency.

It was one of the few activities supporting Polish and German artists of the programme. During the residencies, which lasted for two months, six artists developed their projects, while benefiting from the professional knowledge of invited experts.

One of the results of the program is a website that summarizes the residents' activities. It is a permanent platform that we hope to develop in future editions of the programme. It is available both through a search engine and the OP ENHEIM website at www.digitalresidency.pl.

PERFORMANS ONLINE

We invited artists living in Poland and Germany to work together on the performance program at the OP ENHEIM:

- Krzysztof Leon Dziemaszkiewicz
- Ala Savashevich
- Jana Shostak
- Anna Steller.

Pandemic restrictions resulted in that a series of video activities was created, relating to the current social situation in Poland and in the world.

DOCU-CAMERA ACTIVITIES IN COOPERATION WITH WCRS

CONCERTS

EXPERIMENTAL MUSIC CYCLE TACET, BASS&BEAT

A completely new cycle in OP ENHEIM was Tacet, curated by Paweł Szroniak, known from his own Rozkurz project. The programme consisted of three meetings presenting the most innovative projects by contemporary artists working with sound.

To participate in the project we invited musicians, composers, artists and artists associated with the Berlin music scene. Each of the performances was preceded by a lecture, which helped to introduce the audience to key issues in music studies, art history, philosophy of culture, new technologies and sciences (e.g. psychoacoustics).

HYBRIDAND

Initially in a hybrid form, and later in a fully digital form, we also conducted meetings from the OP_Talks series.

In total there were 13 meetings, debates, conferences where we hosted authors, critics, experts, and artists such as:

Hubertus v. Amelunxen, Iwona Bigos, Ramona Bräu, Małgorzata Chilkiewicz, Isabella Czarnowska, Volker Diehl, Krzysztof Leon Dziemaszkiewicz, Agata Ganiebna, Mikołaj Grynberg, Dominika Kawalerowicz, Bogna Koreng, Andrzej Leder, Dominik Lejman, prof. dr Peter Oliver Loew, Małgorzata Ludwisiak, Anna Makówka-Kwapisiewicz, Piotr Rypson, Ala Savashevich, Jana Shostak, Agnieszka Sosnowska, Anna Steller, Aneta Szyłak, Anna Wacławik-Orpik, Marek Wasilewski, Hanna Wróblewska, Artem Zozulia.

LECTURES, MEETINGS, DEBATES

WEBINARS

TRAINING SERIES FOR ARTISTS IN COOPERATION
WITH FOUNDATION FOR POLISH-GERMAN COOPERATION

The network also ran an educational series for artists OP_Fame, which consisted of five meetings led by artists and a curator, specializing in their fields of work:

- Diana Lelonek
- Angelika Markul
- Szymon Maliborski
- Dominik Lejman
- Ramona Brau.

There was also a lecture by Isabella Czarnowska on the essence of collecting art.

During the meetings, we discussed the process of creating an individual exhibition and creating a coherent exhibition project, from the idea to implementation, the issue of the methodology of designing research work or how to define the subject of a selected theme taking into account the social, political and historical context.

DPS OFFICE

DEUTSCH-POLNISCHE STIFTUNG KULTURPFELGE UND DENKMALSCHUTZ WITH AN OFFICE IN OP ENHEIM

Deutsch-Polnische Stiftung Kulturpflege und Denkmalschutz

This year, the OP ENHEIM Team was joined by Karolina Jara, an art historian and Ph.D. student at the University of Wroclaw.

Karolina represents the Polish-German Foundation for Monument Protection (Deutsch-Polnische Stiftung Kulturpflege und Denkmalschutz), which from this year has its office in our headquarters, the former Oppenheim House.

Similarly to OP ENHEIM, Deutsch-Polnische Stiftung Kulturpflege und Denkmalschutz acts with care for historical monuments and spreads knowledge about their protection.

Z sercem do zabytku - kamienica Oppenheimów we Wrocławiu

określić hasłem "z sercem do zabytku".

Zabytkowa kamienica Oppenheimów to przykład, że warto tchnąć nowe życie w stare mury, a one odwdzięczą się. Parafrazując motto znajdującego się niegdyś w tym budynku renomowanego sklepu obuwniczego rodziny Herz "z sercem do podeszwy", zarówno renowację kamienicy, jak i program działań realizowany w ulokowanej tu młodej instytucji kultury OP ENHEIM można amienica Oppenheimów jest jedna z najstarszych zachowanych kamienic na obszarze wrocławskiego Starego Miasta. Znajduje się w północnej pierzei pl. Solnego pod nr. 4, w towarzystwie równie ciekawego architektonicznie sąsiedztwa. Narożnik od strony ul. Kiełbaśniczej zajmuje eklektyczna kamienica z około 1900 r. projektu C. Gühla, a po drugiej stronie Domu Oppenheimów znajduje się dawna "Apteka pod Murzynem" Adolfa Radinga z lat 1925-1928, przykład modernistycznej awangardy reprezentujący styl okrę-towy. Zaraz obok niej stoi kolejna przełomowa realizacja w nurcie modernizmu - dawna Miejska Kasa Oszczędności projektu Heinricha Rumpa z początku lat trzydziestych XX w., od początku budząca kontrowersje z uwagi na przekroczenie wysokości historycznej zabudowy rynku.

Za pieczolowicie odrestaurowaną baro-kową fasadą Domu Oppenheimów kryją się elementy o jeszcze starszej metryce. Podmurówka jest datowana przez archeologów na XIII w., a podpiwniczenie na XIV w. Kolejne przebudowy nastąpiły na przełomie XVII i XVIII w. W 1810 r. kamienicę nabył bankier Heymann Oppenheim, a ślad tego przełomowego wydarzenia jest do dziś widoczny w tympanonie dekoracyjnego portalu z literą "O" i datą. Aby dostosować budynek do celów mieszkalnych i związanych z prowadzeniem interesów nastąpiły przebudowy wnętrza. Kamienica otrzymala także zupelnie nową fasadę, podporządkowana symetrii osiowej, drewniane schody (zachowane do dziś) powyżej drugiego piętra, a także okna, drzwi oraz stiukowe stropy. Dom pozostał w rękach żydowskiej rodziny Oppenheimów do 1902 r., kiedy to Julie von Cohn-Oppenheim dokonała aktu darowizny nieruchomości na rzecz gminy żydowskiej. Na mocy testamentu jej męża, Ferdynanda Oppenheima, działała już wówczas fundacja charytatywna, której głównym zadaniem było wspieranie ubogich członków społeczności żydowskiej. Pomieszczenia na parterze i piętrze zostały przeznaczone na lokale usługowe, wyżej znajdowały się mieszkania na wynajem, a czynsz z najmu utrzymywał

Najlepiej udokumentowany rozdział z tego okresu to historia rodziny Herz prowadzącej od 1894 r. na parterze kamienicy świetnie prosperujący sklep obuwniczy. Buty marki Herz cieszyły się niezwykłym powodzeniem, a sprzedaż wysyłkowa była prowadzona na cały świat. Podczas zbierania informacji na temat przeszlości budynku potomkowie rodziny mieszkający w Argentynie przekazali zdjęcia i materiały archiwalne, które pozwoliły uzupełnić luki w wiedzy na temat przedwojennych losów kamienicy.

1 | Widok na pl. Solny w dwudziestoleciu międzywojennym, po prawej kamienica Oppenheimów (fotografia w zbiorach Biblioteki Uniwersyteckiej we Wrocławiu. Oddział Zbiorów Graficznych)

Szczególnie dramatyczny okres w historii budynku, również dla członków rodziny Herz, nastał wraz z zaostrzeniem represji wobec ludności żydowskiej w okresie nazistowskim. W 1941 r. ostatni mieszkający tu Żydzi, którzy nie wyemigrowali w latach wcześniejszych, zostali deportowani do obozów koncentracyjnych.

Losy kamienicy i jej mieszkańców opisała Lisa Höhenleitner w pracy magisterskiej przygotowanej na Uniwersytecie Viadrina

STOLPERSTEINE

MEMORIAL STONES
COMMEMORATION OF NAZI VICTIMS

In November 2020, we organized two special events: the debate on Stolpersteine - who commemorates whom and for whom? with the participation of:

- Ramona Bräu
- Mikołaj Grynberg
- Anna Makówka-Kwapisiewicz
- Agata Ganiebna

and a webinar for artists around the Arolsen Archives, a center for documenting the fate of the victims of the National Socialist regime and survivors.

O P ENHEIM, in cooperation with the Jewish Historical Institute, intends to create and build a Stolpersteine in front of the tenement house to commemorate the inhabitants of this place.

Both events focused on the issue of Stolpersteine and their planned location at our headquarters, the old Oppenheim House in Wrocław.

In December 2020, in the Wrocław Cultural Essentials. Karolina Jara's text devoted to these issues was published.

STOLPER-STEINE CZYLI O PAMIĘCI, O KTÓRĄ MOŻNA SIĘ POTKNĄĆ

OR MEMORY YOU CAN STUMBLE ON

"Stolpersteine" w języku niemieckim oznacza "kamienie, o które się potykamy". To niewielkie pomniki dla ofiar nazizmu wmurowane w chodnik przed domem, który był ich ostatnim miejscem zamieszkania. Betonowe kostki o wymiarach 10 na 10 cm są pokryte mosiężną płytką, na której wyryte jest imię, nazwisko, data urodzin i śmierci oraz jej miejsce.

A MONUMENT DO NOT FORGET

POLISH-GERMAN COMPETITION
IMPLEMENTED IN COOPERATION WITH
VEREIN ZUR PFLEGE SCHLESISCHER KUNST UND KULTUR E.V

In 2020, we also started cooperation with the Association for the Nursing of Art and Culture of Silesia (VSK), as part of which we organized a competition for the protection of monuments Monument - do not forget! / Denkaml - denk mal dran!

The third edition of the Competition was held to support the long-term protection of "small" objects of historic value in the Dolnośląskie Voivodeship, the southern part of the Lubuskie Voivodeship and the Lower Silesian part of Upper Lusatia.

The partner of the event was also the German-Polish Foundation for the Preservation of Cultural Monuments (DPS), and the Competition's patronage was extended to such institutions as:

- Marshal of the Lower Silesian Voivodeship Cezary Przybylski
- Lower Silesian Provincial Conservator of Monuments
- Consulate General of the Republic of Germany in Wrocław

FLOWLAND

ARTISTIC PICNIC IN TARCZYN NEAR BY WLEŃ EUROPEAN HERITAGE DAYS

For the fourth time in Tarczyn near Wleń, where we are revitalizing a traditional farm, an artistic FLOWLAND picnic took place.

This year, it was included in the European Heritage Days celebrations. The House in Tarczyn near Wleń is the second place dedicated to art, cultivating cultural heritage and issues related to ecology and climate.

The highlight of the event in Tarczyn was the exhibition in the former German House No. 13, prepared in cooperation with the BWA gallery in Jelenia Góra.

During the picnic, visitors also had the opportunity to take part in, among others, slow life workshops, a poetry meeting and a special performance entitled Structural Transformation for 2 Holger Maik Mertin and Justyna Niznik and a performance lecture by Silke Lichtenberg and Oliver Spatz.

OP_TOURS

GROUP TRIPS WITH ART

OP_Tours is a series of organized trips to Poland and foreign galleries and museums, which is an excellent opportunity to get acquainted with the currently ongoing exhibitions.

As part of the first edition of the project, a one-day trip to Warsaw was planned with the participation of our recipients, during which, accompanied by qualified art guides, we were to visit temporary exhibitions, including in Zachęta - National Gallery of Art or the Center for Contemporary Art Ujazdowski Castle.

Due to the pandemic, the idea was suspended and is scheduled for 2022. It will certainly be an extraordinary adventure, a great opportunity to make new friends, exchange ideas and shared inspiration.

ART IN PUBLIC SPACE CTL CAMPAIGNS

At OP ENHEIM, it is also important for us to expand our activities to the space outside the gallery. In 2020, we managed to organize a presentation of the works of the Laureates of the OP_Young program.

Thanks to our activities, the play could also be seen in one of the most frequented locations in Wrocław - on media at the Main Bus Station Stopnear the Wroclavia shopping market.

COOPERATION

FRIENDS, PARTNERS AND SPONSORS THANK YOU!

From the very beginning of OP ENHEIM, our activities are supported by a group of fantastic people and companies.

It is thanks to your commitment, patronage and individual support that it is possible to create such a rich and varied program of events in our institution.

We would like to thank all of you for the year 2020 spent together.
